

Your chance to perform with The National Youth Ballet of Great Britain

Would you like to perform on stage with the National Youth Ballet Company?

National Youth Ballet is holding three fun packed sessions within their Outreach project 'Fit to Dance'. Don't miss this opportunity to perform at The Ashcroft Theatre, Fairfield Halls during the February half term.

Three classes of two hours each on Monday 16th, Tuesday 17th and Wednesday 18th February (half term) with professional choreographer, David Rhys, will culminate in participants performing alongside the company in at least two of their performances between 19th and 21st February.

At just £25 for the whole week, this is a unique opportunity not to be missed. All participants will also get a FREE ticket to see NYB perform!

DANCE EXPERIENCE NOT NECESSARY
